Kenſington, September 19.

THIS Day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled, waited on his Majeſty to congratulate him on his ſafe Return; and being introduced to his Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Grafton, Lord Chamberlain of his Majeſty's Houſehold, William Moreton, Eſq; the Recorder, made their Compliments in the following Addreſs.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord-Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to addreſs your Majeſty with our moſt ſincere and joyful Congratulations, on your Majeſty's ſafe and happy Return to your Britiſh Dominions.

Permit us, Royal Sir, with Hearts full of Gratitude, to expreſs our ſincere Acknowledgments of your Majeſty's paternal Care and vigilant Regard for the true Intereſt and Proſperity of your People, by the vigorous Meaſures taken by your Majeſty to protect our Commerce and Colonies from the Incroachments of the French.

And we do humbly aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, on this, and every other Occaſion, chearfully contribute towards the Support of your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government, and the Defence of the juſt Rights and Poſſeſſions of your Crown, againſt all Attempts whatſoever.

To which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to return this moſt gracious Anſwer.

I Thank you for this very dutiful and affectionate Addreſs. The Support of the Rights of my Crown, and the Preſervation of my Dominions in America, are ſo eſſential to the Trade and Commerce of my People, that the City of London may depend, that I will continue to take ſuch Meaſures, as may beſt tend to thoſe great and important Ends. The Aſſurances you give me of your Zeal and Aſſiſtance, are very pleaſing to me; and the City of London may rely upon the Continuance of my Favour and Protection.

They were received very graciouſly, and had the Honour to kiſs his Majeſty's Hand.

After which his Majeſty was pleaſed to confer the Honour of Knighthood on,

William Moreton, Eſq; Recorder.

Samuel Fludyer, and John Torriano, Eſqrs. Sheriffs.

Kenſington, September 19.

This Day Prince Golitzin, Envoy Extraordinary from the Empreſs of Ruſſia, had his firſt private Audience of His Majeſty, to deliver his Letters of Credence; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Holderneſſe, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cotrell Dormer, Knt. Maſter of the Ceremonies.

Conſtantinople, Aug. 1. The Miniſtry are at preſent in a State of Inactivity, occupied chiefly with the Ceremoneals uſually practis'd after Bairam. The Sultan does not affect to be a rigid Obſerver of the Etiquette eſtabliſhed by his Predeceſſor; for, contrary to Cuſtom, before he was treated by the Vizir, he went and ſurprized the old Cuſtomer at his Country-Houſe. It is aſſur'd he accepted from that Officer, Preſents of a leſſer Value than what he uſually gave on that Occaſion; and that, as a Mark of Favour, that Prince, at his Departure, remitted him an Obligation for 300 Purſes, which had been exacted from him by the late Vizir Aly Paſcha. On Monday laſt the Vizir entertained the Sultan at the Sweet-Waters: There were vaſt Preparations made, and all ended with the greateſt Order. Our Advices from Cairo of the 17th of May mention, that a Skirmiſh had happen'd there amongſt the leading Men, which ended with the Defeat of one Riſvan Cheaia, a Man of great Intereſt, and who aſpir'd at Sovereign Power. This Fray had reſtored Quiet there, but how long it may laſt is difficult to judge, and whether Order and Regularity can ever be eſtabliſhed. The independent State thoſe Chiefs have been in for ſome Years, will undoubtedly engage them to oppoſe any Meaſures this Prince may take to render that Government more ſubſervient to his Authority.

Leghorn, Aug. 29. By our laſt Advices from Corſica, we learn, that M. Paſquali de Paole, ſeeing a Faction raiſed againſt him, by the Perfidiouſneſs of ſome of his People, courageouſly oppoſed them; and was therein aſſiſted by the Commons of the Nation, who elected him their Chief, and Director; and that, having aſſembled a Body of Seven Thouſand Men, he defeated Matra, Chief of that Faction, who, in a little Time after, was quite abandoned by his Followers, and obliged to fly with the Remnant, about One Hundred Men, into a ſmall Fort ſituated on the Shore of Alena, from whence, in a ſmall Skiff, he ſent his Wife and Family to Baſtia, leaving his Houſe and Effects at the Diſcretion of the Conquerors; which, however, they would not demoliſh, out of Regard to his Brother, a Lieutenant Colonel in the Service of the King of Sardinia. It is added, that Matra, in this Situation, implored Succours from the Genoeſe Commiſſaries, and that, in Conſequence thereof, a Quantity of Flour, Powder, and Shot, had been ſent him from Baſtia. That M. de Paole had cauſed a General Pardon to be proclaimed in all the Pariſhes, to all ſuch as had taken up Arms againſt him, excepting, nevertheleſs, fourteen Perſons, amongſt whom are Matra, Santucci and Son, Cotoni and Paganelli, who all, as Traytors and Rebels againſt their Country, were proſcribed, and their Crimes declared Capital. Their Goods and Effects have been burnt or plunder'd, as alſo have been thoſe of their Dependents, who refuſed the Benefit of the Proclamation. Thoſe who accepted it, were exempted from any other Puniſhment, beſides being ſent Priſoners to the Caſtle of Corte. It is thought that M. de Paole will proſecute his March; and there is a Report, that he intends to attack Matra, with the Remains of his Faction, in the Fort of Alena.

Hamburgh, Sept. 5. Baron Backof, the Daniſh Envoy at the Imperial Court, having obtained Leave of Abſence for ſome Time from his Poſt, is arrived here from Vienna, on his Way to Denmark.

Turin, Sept. 6. Thurſday the 4th Inſtant, the Count of Noailles, Ambaſſador Extraordinary from his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty to this Court, arrived here.

Copenhagen, Sept. 9. On the 7th Inſtant, about Eleven of the Clock at Night, died here, after a few Days Illneſs, his Excellency Werner Count Schulenburg, who was Privy Counſellor, Knight of the Order of the Elephant, Field Marſhal and Secretary at War in the Service of the King of Denmark. Being far advanced in Years, he was quickly carried off by a Mortification, which begun, without any remarkable Accident, in one of his Feet.

Bruſſels, Sept. 16. We are informed, that in all Probability the French Troops will remain in their Cantonments till they begin to ſeparate on the 20th Inſtant, on Account of the Badneſs of the Ground in their Camp at Aimerie, which is now become a mere Moraſs: We likewiſe hear that ſix Battallions of theſe Troops are to be removed to the inward Parts of the Kingdom, from whence upwards of 30 Batallions are ordered to march into French Flanders, and upon the Maeſe, ſo as to make up the Number of 90 or 92 Battallions, by which the Troops in theſe Parts will be increaſed to above double their preſent Number, including the Augmentation of four Companies per Battallion and ten Men per Company. The Captains are already appointed, and actually employed in raiſing their Companies, which are all to be compleat againſt the Time of the Reviews in March. The Regiments of Horſe are to be augmented with ten Men per Troop, as well as the Dragoons, which laſt are beſides, to have four additional Troops in each Regiment. The whole Augmentation in the National Troops, it is computed, will amount to Sixty-five Thouſand Men. Governor Lyttelton, who was taken on board his Britannick Majeſty's Ship the Blandford, by M. du Guay's Squadron, arrived here Yeſterday on his Return to England. Count Colloredo and Marquis Paolucci arrived here together laſt Friday from Hanover.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurisies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-against the North Door of the Church, at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again; and by James Esdall, Printer, on the Blind Quay, Dublin.

* See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Place above-mentioned. Price 6d.
